Newsletter No. 8

19th of October 2020

All pupils will have all their books sent home in their plastic boxes on Thursday 22nd of October. These are sent home purely as a precautionary measure in case school should close after Halloween. There are no plans to close schools at present. Please do not open the boxes unless absolutely necessary. When school reopens, boxes and all the contents should be returned to school.

As part of our wellbeing initiative, Fifth Class have worked really hard to create an upbeat banner to keep our spirits high in Robertstown. Let's work together as a team and keep everyone safe. Please see the photos below.

We have scheduled our Book Fair from the 12th of November until the 19th of November. Unfortunately, this year parents cannot call into the school. We will run the book fair in line with regulations. Each class will have their own delegated time. More details will follow closer to the time.

Our Witch Walk is scheduled to take place on Friday 23rd October. Each class bubble will go on their walk at separate times during the school day. Unfortunately, parents cannot join pupils on the walk this year. Teachers will arrange a class party on Friday. Children may bring in their own treats for the party – please do not bring any nuts or treats with nuts to school.

Please return all sponsorship cards to school by Friday. Donations may be made through the link issued on Aladdin or by cash to school. Please ensure all cash is in a plastic bag. Many thanks for your support.

Fourth Class have painted some lovely Halloween scenes.

School closes for Midterm Break on Friday at 2.35pm School reopens on Monday November 2nd at 2pm. I hope you all have a lovely restful week and get to make the best of the challenging times we are in.
