Robertstown National School

13th March 2023,

Dear Parents,

We hope everyone had a nice weekend and are keeping well.

The school will be closed this Friday 17th March for St. Patrick's Day. There will be no homework club on Thursday 16th.

We will be celebrating 'Seachtain na Gaeilge' in the school this week. Lisa Curtain will be coming to the school tomorrow the 14th of March to teach the children some Irish dancing. Can we please ask all parents to donate €2 for this. There will be a quiz and Ceolchoirm on Thursday the 16th March and children may dress up in green if they wish.

The Anti Bullying Committee is holding The Saint Patrick's Day Colouring Art Competition. Deadline is Thursday 16th March.

Senior Boys and Girls GAA training will take place next Wednesday 22nd and 29th March in Robertstown GAA after school from 2.45 – 3.30pm. Mr O Donoghue will be taking the boys and our very own county star Ms Curran will be training the girls. Games start the week we are back after Easter.

The WEEE Ireland Schools Battery Recycling Competition will be closing on the 31st March. We would be grateful if everyone could please gather all used batteries at home and send them into us in order for the school to be entered into a competition to win a €2,000 sports and PE equipment voucher.
